Class History

There we were, twenty-nine forward looking freshmen entering old Juda High School in the fall of 1959. It looked like it was going to be a great year with our class officers: Karen Beckman, President; Roger Bauman, Vice-President; Dennis (Doc) Davis, Secretary-Treasurer; and our Student Council representatives, Barbara Eberle and Jeff Williams. Our advisors that year were Mrs. Brecklin and Mr. Bartig. The members of our faculty this year: Mr. Brozovich, Principal; Mrs. Siedschlag, commercial; Mrs. Anding, home economics and science; Mr. Bartig, coach and history; Miss Pierce, English; Mrs. Brecklin, music; and Mr. Loberger, agriculture and biology. We welcomed Mr. Wittlief as our new science and math teacher in the middle of the year. Lois Arnsmeier and Glenda Severson represented the class on the B-team cheerleading squad.

As sophomores our class decreased in size to twenty-seven students. Our class officers this year were: Janet Lehnherr, President; Barbara Eberle, Vice President; Karen Lehr, Secretary; Karla Ramseier, Treasurer. Karen Beckman and Roger Bauman were chosen as our Student Council representatives. Our advisors this year were Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Siedschlag. The old members of the faculty back to greet us: Mr. Brozovich, Mrs. Williams (formerly Miss Pierce), Mr. Wittlief, Mr. Bartig, Mr. Loberger, Mrs. Brecklin, and Mrs. Siedschlag. The new members of the faculty included Mrs. Lehnherr, home economics, and Mr. Taylor, who took over biology and agriculture after about the first six weeks of school. Our shining glory this year was our new class rings. Lois Arnsmeier and Karen Lehr were elected as our B-team cheerleaders.

Entering our Junior year our class decreased in size to twenty-three members. We were welcomed by several new faculty members which included: Mr. Uetz, football coach and science; Miss Marti, music; Miss Carmody, commercial; Mr. Harkins, basketball coach and history; and Mr. Miller, English. The old members of the faculty included: Mrs. Lehnherr, Mr. Taylor, Mr. Wittlief, and Mr. Brozovich. Our class officers were Fred Siegenthaler, President; Glenda Severson, Vice President; Karen Lehr, Secretary; Janet Lehnherr, Treasurer. Lois Arnsmeier and Dexter Marchant reported to the class from the Student Council. Our class sponsors were Mr. Taylor and Miss Carmody. Our big thrill this year was our Junior Prom. Our theme was "Deep Sea Fantasy." Karen Lehr and Roger Bauman reigned as our "King and Queen." On the Court of Honor were Janet Lehnherr, Dennis Davis, Lois Arnsmeier, Nathan Phillipps, Glenda Severson, Fred Siegenthaler, Sherry Williams and Larry Whitehead. Karen Lehr was also elected to the Homecoming court this year. Glenda Severson and Karen Lehr were elected to the A-team cheerleading squad this year. Our class play was entitled "Lights Out."

Going into our Senior year, we still had twenty-three members. Our class officers: Fred Siegenthaler, President; Roger Bauman, Vice President; Karen Lehr, Secretary; and Janet Lehnherr, Treasurer. Anita Frey and Nathan Phillipps represented us on the Student Council. Again this year we were greeted by several new teachers. These were Mrs. McGinnis, commercial; Mr. Caldwell, assistant coach and history; Miss Hahn, English; and Mr. Blum, Principal. The old members of the faculty back to greet us: Mr. Uetz, Miss Marti, Mrs. Lehnherr, Mr. Taylor and Mr. Wittlief. Our sponsors this year were Mr. Taylor and Mr. Blum. We were very proud to have Janet Lehnherr and Dennis Davis elected as our Homecoming "King and Queen" and Barbara Eberle, Nate Phillipps, and Bill Wunschel on the court. Karen Lehr, Glenda Severson, and Lois Arnsmeier were elected as the A-team Cheerleaders. Janet Lehnherr is editor of the "Panther" and Karen Lehr edits the "Judean." Our class play is scheduled for March 29. The class trip for May 11, baccalaureate for May 19, and graduation for May 23.

Class Poem

Elaine is in chorus;
She's real great,
But her bad habit--
She's always late.

Judy is soundless
When she wants to be quiet,
But when she feels silly,
She's really a riot.

Lois, a cheerleader,
Has this motto one:
Daytime is for resting
And night time is for fun.

Roger, tall and handsome,
Is just the special type
That makes a very special King
On a very special night.

Karen has many virtues:
She's pretty, and also smart;
If there's any work to do,
She always does her part.

Dennis is our "Doctor"
'Cause he can operate.
First it's on the football field
And then it's on a date.

Barb's an energetic senior;
She's a blonde with eyes of blue.
Juda's very proud to claim her
As Dairy Queen of '62.

Anita is quiet!
This some people doubt;
But we know that fun's near
When "Frito's" about.

Gary pretends he's quiet,
But he's always fooling around;
When you see him in his car,
You know he's funward bound.

Sheryl is always eager
In everything she does.
Asked why she's always talking,
She answers, "Just because."

Janet was Homecoming Queen
Of Nineteen Sixty-Two.
As editor of the Panther
She's always busy, too.

Karen was the Queen
For a "Deep-Sea Fantasy;"
As a cheerleader and an editor
She's as busy as can be.

When John moved back to Juda
It was like a dream;
He's a swell guy to know,
And he's good on the "Team."

Dexter has ambition
And this one thing is clear:
When it comes to selling annual ads,
He's salesman of the year.

Nate's small but mighty;
In football this he proves.
Ready, set, go, man, go!
He's always on the move.

If Glenda has a problem
It's usually a boy.
When it comes to cheering,
To see her is a joy.

Fred is our President
But he'd rather race around.
The engine starts, and there he goes
Above the speed of sound.

Larry's kind of quiet,
But we'll have to admit
When there's any fun a'brewing,
He's one reason for it.

Shirley is the senior
That always wears a smile.
When you go to talk to her
You're laughing all the while.

Sharon's very good in school
But she can never think
Of anything but the fun she's had
At the roller skating rink.

Sherry's life is made of work
And lots and lots of fun.
She makes sure the fun is over
Before the work's begun.

Bill is an athlete;
At sports he is swell.
Everything else he does,
He also does well.

Betty's made of giggles
And a little nonsense too.
But that's OK--it's fine with us.
People like that are few.

This is our class
Of '62.
We hope you'll miss us
As we'll miss you.
